

W.I.N.

The Women's Interactive Network allows women to explore and develop their career paths at the NFL while deepening the engagement of all employees at the League.

WIN Objectives:

- Bring men and women of the NFL together to educate each other on gender and diversity issues in the workplace and to help enhance the culture of the NFL.
- Provide a peer network for participants that will further enhance the communication and collaboration of women at the League.
- Help foster the retention and career development of female employees, as well as provide unique opportunities and perspectives for membership.
